

Adult Sunday School – Fall 2009

Class	Study Focus	Location	Teacher(s)
Seekers	Participants will experience God's love and guidance speaking to them anew through Troublesome Bible Passages . Class comprised of middle to senior adults.	C103	Lee Smith
Joy	The Joy class is primarily focused on the relation of Scriptures to our faith. As such, we examine our understanding of the Bible and how it affects our faith and how Christianity has evolved.	C109/110	Mike Howell
Spirit of Fellowship	Members include young and middle adults with and/or without children. Various resources are used to initiate discussions that integrate our lives and our faith. This fall we will focus on Upside Living in a Downside Economy (cost $8)	C106/107	Jeff Jones Kim Likins Brett Borton Imogene Yongue
SNESUN (Something New Every Sunday)	This discussion-format group will consider a different current issue every week through the lens of our faith using the UM resource, FaithLink .	C105	Don Fogg John McReynolds

All classes begin at 10:15 a.m. Adult classrooms are located in the Celebration Center; children & youth located in Education Bldg. You are welcome to join any class at any time of year.