Adam Hamilton's best-selling Seeing Gray in a World of Black and White prompted persons of faith into more thoughtful conversations on the political, moral, and religious issues that divide us. This timely study features five sessions based on thought provoking topics from the book and is accompanied by a DVD segment of Hamilton's sermons related to these issues. Each session will include discussion questions that will help participants delve deeper into the topics:

Where Faith and Politics Meet
Christ, Christians, and Culture Wars
How Should We Live? The Ethics of Jesus

2010 Fall Festival Final Update

The 32nd Fall Festival was another great success at raising funds for our many mission projects. The success of our festival is due almost entirely to the generous contribution of time and effort by so many in the congregation. Again, we want to thank you for any contribution made. The results of your efforts are impressive:

Over 70 people attended and helped with our Sunday Kick-off Luncheon and set-up.
188 volunteered time Monday through Friday in preparation for Saturday's sales on Nov. 13.
146 volunteers were present on Fall Festival Saturday throughout the day.

All these efforts contributed to the wonderful results that were achieved.

Over $32,000 gross sales were accounted for with net proceeds of $24,500.00 contributed to our church mission programs.

We want to extend our heartfelt thanks to all the committee chairs and their volunteers who worked so hard all week to transform the Celebration Center and outside areas into a shopper's paradise, to Juanita Graul and Joy MacDonald for the wonderful kick-off luncheon, Steve Borginani and his crew for the Friday night volunteer supper and the wonderful lunch for our patrons on Fall Festival Day, Jeanie Blankenbaker and Lucy Coleman for keeping up with all the volunteers and nametags, Dean Roberts for an outstanding financial system, Dan and Amanda Griswold for entertaining the kids on Festival Day, Dean Beckelhimer and crew for parking all those cars, Sandy Gillis and Jennifer Howard for their advertising efforts, Carlene Kilgore and her volunteers for managing the sale of pecans and peanuts, George Lumley for set-up and clean-up as well as the workers who stayed afterward to help with clean-up. Last but not least a big thank you to Bret for his outstanding custodial services to our cause, and to Phyllis and Nadine and our pastors for their support and encouragement and to our congregation and community for their donations that brought in the mission money.

The Alexander's will continue as co-chairs and look forward to planning for another outstanding Fall Festival on November 12, 2011. Please begin putting away things to donate now!

UMVIM Trip to Republic of Panama October 21-30, 2011

Is this your year to go? Is God calling you to serve others? Respond to that nudge and come with us to Panama by serving on St. Andrew's adult United Methodist Volunteers In Mission (UMVIM) team October 21-30, 2011!

Mission Outreach is seeking 12 persons who have a heart for serving others with their prayers, presence, gifts and service. The team will work outside Panama City at Campamento Cielito, the in-progress campsite for the Evangelical Methodist Church of Panama. Some buildings have already been constructed with the help of other UMVIM teams and there is still work to do. Rev. Rhett Thompson, Global Ministries missionary supported by St. Andrew, has also asked us to conduct Vacation Bible School for children and invited us to worship at his church in Panama City. Team member applications are in the church office and are due by February 23, 2011. Please contact John McReynolds for further information.

A new book in our church library is In the Company of Others by Jan Karon. If you enjoyed reading about Father Tim in the Mitford books, you will enjoy reading about the adventures of Father Tim and Cynthia as they travel to Ireland.

We would like to continue our book reviews. If you would be willing to share comments about a great book that you have read, please contact Mary Rop at 363-2767.

Remember to stop by our church library for a good book. Happy Reading!!
